

Help us reach more of the world's poorest children

Millions of children all over the world are missing out on the benefits of an education because of hunger. Some are not attending school because they must work or find food. Others are attending school but are simply too hungry to learn and make the most of their opportunity.

By sponsoring a school with Mary's Meals you can ensure that every child in an entire school receives a daily meal, which will give them energy to learn and the chance to dream of a brighter future.

Whether you're an individual, or from a school, workplace, or church, you can give your fundraising a focus by pledging to cover the cost of feeding every student at a school for an entire year.

The cost of feeding a child with Mary's Meals for a whole school year is just $25.20, so your fundraising efforts will quickly add up to make a real impact.

This is your opportunity to change the lives of hundreds of children.

Will you sponsor a school with Mary's Meals?

You can choose to sponsor:

A small school	from $6,000 per year.
A medium school	from $9,000 per year.
A large school	from $14,000 per year.

Alternatively, you could opt to Feed a Classroom, where you can feed 25 children for an entire school year by covering the cost of their daily meal.

Chimulambe Primary, Zambia

Chimulambe Primary School is located in a rural part of Zambia. Most of the community here work as subsistence farmers and the village can only be reached on rough dirt roads.

Many of the 294 children here have a long walk to school, and in the rainy season, they have to cross streams, but they come every day because they know they will receive Mary's Meals.

Jane Laura Tembo, Deputy Head Teacher at the school says that before the feeding program began, only 180 children attended and there was a lot of absenteeism. She says, "If the feeding stopped, we would really see very low attendance and a decrease in enrollment."

Skeva is 7 and is a pupil at Chimulambe. He loves to play football with his friends once his classes are over. His mother, Theresa, explains that they don't have enough to eat at home. "Sometimes I cannot provide the children with enough to eat. It pains me." For Theresa, it makes a huge difference to know that Skeva will be fed each day and that he's growing well and making the most of his education. She says, "The children are more healthy since eating porridge. Many were malnourished before, but now they are more active. Now they can even take part in sports."

By sponsoring a school like Chimulambe, you can make a real and long-lasting difference to not just a school, but a whole community.

If you are inviting friends, family or your wider community to join you on this journey, here are some fundraising ideas

Get active and Move For Meals

Set yourself a challenge and get sponsored to walk, run, swim, dance or skate!

Porridge Day

Throw an event serving porridge (or oatmeal) so people can experience what kids eat every school day in some of the countries we serve.

Organize a talk

Organize a talk about the work of Mary's Meals at your work, school, or community group and ask for donations. Get in touch to find out

Do what you enjoy

Enjoy crafting? Make and sell your creations. Enjoy gardening? Hold a plant sale. Enjoy music? Organize a concert.

Hold a quiz night, a dinner party, a talent show, or a sports tournament.

Organize a spare change collection or collect leftover foreign currency, arrange a collection at a supermarket, or collect donations instead of gifts for a special occasion such as a wedding or a birthday.

mary's meals

to world hunger

I have been sponsoring a school for a few years now and recently set up a sponsorship in memory of my late wife.

As a teacher, my focus was always on enabling children to reach their full potential. I retired and met my wife, who shared the story of Mary's Meals with me. Sponsoring a school with Mary's Meals seemed an obvious next step for me.

I believe that every child should have the opportunity to develop whatever talents and abilities they have.
